From Pastor Greg Pimlott, Senior Pastor

United Methodist pastors wear a lot of “hats” in the churches we serve. We serve as preachers and confidantes, wedding officiants and grief counselors, leaders of staff and—on occasion—plungers of stopped-up toilets, among many other pastoral roles.

One of the United Methodist pastor’s “hats” that I particularly enjoy is serving as the chair of the Lay Leadership Development Committee (for folks who have been around United Methodist Churches for a long time, this is the committee that used to be known as the Nominations Committee). The Lay Leadership Development Committee is responsible for identifying, recruiting, and developing leaders within the congregation. Our most visible task is making sure that the committees and teams in the church are staffed with faithful, talented leaders. We prepare the leadership roster for the upcoming year, which is voted on at the church’s annual Charge Conference, the congregational gathering where the essential yearly business of the church is done each year. At Charge Conference, new members are celebrated, deaths are recorded, ministry candidates are endorsed by the congregation, budget items are agreed upon ...and the leadership roster is officially approved.

As the Lay Leadership Development Committee met this fall to prepare the leadership roster, we identified several core responsibilities we wanted to accomplish. One of those was promoting good communication about the leadership structure of the church. We wanted to make sure that everyone at Christ Indianapolis United Methodist Church understood who the leaders were in the different ministry areas of the church; how leaders are chosen; how the leadership structure operates; and how someone could express interest in a church committee or ministry team.

As you continue reading, you’ll find a few documents that we hope will be helpful to you in understanding the leadership structure of the church. You’ll find information about the committee and team structure of the church; how the nominations process works; and how to express your interest in serving on a committee or team in the church.

Whether in churches or other organizations, leadership structures can sometimes seem mysterious and hard-to-figure out. Most often, that’s the result of inadequate communication. We hope this explanation will help make the leadership structure of the church less mysterious and more transparent...and will inspire you to get involved!

–Rev. Greg Pimlott, Senior Pastor

The Leadership Structure of Christ Indianapolis United Methodist Church

Christ Indianapolis United Methodist Church has a hybrid leadership structure, including committees and teams. Committees do the administrative work of the church. Generally speaking, members serve a three-year term, with roughly a third of the committee cycling off at the end of every year. This practice, which is spelled out in the United Methodist handbook of denominational policies and procedures called the United Methodist Book of Discipline, ensures that church leaders are provided with periods of rest, helps avoid leader burnout, and allows for many voices and ideas to be heard on a committee over time. It also provides an opportunity for committee members who are nearing the end of their three-year term of service to mentor and train the committee members who have recently joined the committee. Occasionally, a committee member will be asked to serve an additional three-year term if there is a specific missional reason to do so. Here are the administrative committees of the church:

- The Finance Committee is responsible for leading the congregation in faithful financial stewardship, for paying the bills, and for ensuring that the money entrusted to the congregation is handled appropriately.
- The Lay Leadership Development Committee is responsible for identifying, recruiting, and developing leaders within the congregation, for recruiting the incoming classes for the church committees, and for preparing the church leadership roster.
- The Staff-Parish Relations Committee is responsible for hiring new staff as well as other staff transitions, and for fostering strong communication between the pastor, staff, and congregation. They are also the committee that communicates with the District Superintendent when there is a pastoral change.
- The Trustees are responsible for ensuring that the buildings and grounds of the church create a safe and welcoming environment for worship, learning, and fellowship.

Teams are responsible for maintaining the programming life of the church. They lead us in worship, in mission, in outreach, and in growing disciples of all ages. Generally speaking, they do not have term limits, but operate on a “y’all come” basis. If you are interested, you talk to the chair and start showing up to meetings, and they put you to work. Here are the programming teams of the church:

- The Education Team is responsible for ensuring that all people in the church, from youngest to oldest, are receiving high-quality and faithful Christian instruction.
- The Preschool Team is responsible for working with the Preschool Director to ensure that the preschool maintains the highest standards of excellence in early education.
- The Missions Team and the Outreach Team are responsible for promoting financial connections and service opportunities for acts of Christian mission and outreach, both in our neighborhood and far away.
- The Worship Committee (which is actually a programming team in spite of its name!) is responsible for working with the pastor to organize and carry out inspiring, Spirit-filled faithful worship.
- The Congregational Care Team is responsible for supporting and organizing all the care-giving ministries in the church, such as homebound ministries, acute care by the parish nurse, Stephen Ministry, prayer ministries, and food ministries. (article continues on page 4)

Continued from page 3 In addition to the committees and teams of the church, there are a few additional leadership positions that the Lay Leadership Development Committee has responsibility for:

- The Church Council is made up of the chairs of the committees and teams of the church; the lay leader of the church; the lay members of Annual Conference; the leaders of a number of programs and ministries of the church; the president of each Sunday school class; and the Church Council chair, vice-chair, and secretary. The Church Council is the chief administrative body of the church and is responsible for working alongside the pastor(s) to administrate and make decisions for the church. Church Council meetings are where decisions are made, consensus is affirmed, and communication between committee leadership takes place.
- The Lay Leader works alongside the pastor to encourage and inspire the congregation to grow in faith, discipleship, and Christian service. The Lay Leader has a seat and a vote on all the committees of the church.
- The Lay Members of Annual Conference attend Annual Conference, the once-a-year gathering of United Methodists from throughout the state of Indiana. At Annual Conference, United Methodists from every UM church in Indiana gather for worship, fellowship, mission, learning, and to do the annual business of the Indiana Conference. While the number of CIUMC's Lay Members is determined by the number of clergy appointed to the church, there are additional opportunities to be an Equalizing Member of Annual Conference representing the Central District, the region of Indiana that includes the south side of Indianapolis. CIUMC has had members take advantage of this opportunity to serve as an Equalizing Member of Annual Conference in past years, and we anticipate having CIUMC members serving in this way again in 2025.

Do you see something here that you'd like to be part of? Reach out to one of the members of the Lay Leadership Development Committee or call the church office to let us know you're interested. If none of these seem exactly right for you, there are many other groups and ministries in the church that aren't part of the official leadership structure. We'd love to help you find a way to serve!

The Nominations Process at CIUMC

Step 1: In late summer or early fall, the Lay Leadership Development Committee begins meeting to develop the leadership roster for the upcoming year. They discuss which members and friends of CIUMC they have noticed whose faith currently seems to be "on fire." They identify the current needs of each committee or team in the church, and they work to match individuals in the congregation with leadership opportunities on that committee or team that will bless both the church and the individual. If anyone has had someone express interest in serving, they bring that person's name to the committee.

Step 2: Lay Leadership Development Committee members contact potential new members of each committee or team. Most newly nominated members of committees will serve a three-year term before cycling off the committee (programming teams operate on a "y'all come" basis, and members tend to remain until they feel called to a different way of serving).

Step 3: The Lay Leadership Development Committee prepares a leadership roster of the people who have agreed to serve on the various teams and committees in the church.

Step 4: The leadership roster is presented and approved at Charge Conference, the annual gathering where the yearly business of the church is conducted.

Step 5: On January 1, the newly elected leaders begin to serve!

From Jennifer Land, Preschool/Childcare Director

The sounds of Christmas are now filling the halls of the preschool as the children prepare for one of the most wonderful nights of the year: The Annual CUMC Preschool Christmas Program. It is Tuesday, December 17th @ 6:30pm in the main sanctuary. Anyone is invited to come watch this joyful evening. The 2023 Christmas Program had standing room only in the sanctuary. Come early if you want a seat. Doors open at 6:10pm. Preschool classes (toddlers and up) will sing praises to our Savior. One of our Pre-K classes will retell Ruth J. Morehead's version of The Christmas Story. This is a great story to read to your children or grandchildren.

Ms. Jenn received a message from an extremely popular guy with a twinkle in his eye and a red, red coat. His name is Santa Claus. He will be stopping by on December 18th and 19th to visit each child in the preschool.

Carwash Fundraiser

Purchase a carwash or two. It can be for you. It can be for a few. Any purchase helps! CUMC Preschool will receive 50% of all sales. The proceeds will be used for programming purposes. Support CUMC Preschool while keeping the salt and grime off your car this winter! Purchasing a carwash can also make a great stocking stuffer or gift for anyone on your Christmas list. CUMC Preschool is hosting an online fundraiser the entire month of December.

Beginning December 1st, visit <https://crewcarwash.com/fundraisers/cumc-preschool/> or scan the QR code to purchase your wash or washes, then you'll receive a QR Code to use from your smartphone or print the purchase to give as a gift. Your support of our preschool is much appreciated as we continue to work of sharing the love Jesus with our students and family each day.

January Updates

January brings snowmen, mittens, and penguins. The New Year also brings new Bible stories to our curriculum. The children will get to learn about David and Goliath and the 10 Commandments and the Lord's Prayer. January 23rd is an event that is not new to the preschool.... our SNOWBALL DANCE. This is a night for the preschool families to mingle, dance, play games, have faces painted, take pictures with their preschooler, and enjoy light refreshments. Fun Fact: the parents dance more than the children do. New to the Snowball dance this year: we will offer Henna art for our families. We are fortunate to be emersed in Indian culture on our little corner of US 31 and Stop 12. More so, we are blessed when our community shares their cultural traditions with us.

Calendar notes:

- All services offered by the CUMC Preschool will be closed for Christmas Break Dec. 23– 27, 2024.
- Preschool Classes will remain closed December 30, 2024-January 3, 2025
- Childcare and extended care services will be open December 30-31 and January 2-3 from 7:00am-5:30pm. We are closed on New Year's Day.

From Becky Morris, Music Director

Think about Carols as you sing them this season. In some ways, Christmas was built to make room for Christ if we simply think about what we do as we do it. Our Christmas Carols are among those. As we sing them in church, hear them in the mall, or play them on our phones...think about the words.

Christmas is a Gift.

A cow would say...

Eat more chicken!

But really, why should we eat more chicken?

Did you know that chicken and it's cousin, the turkey, are high in tryptophan which gives you that comforting feeling after consuming a big bowl of chicken soup or a chicken dinner. If you are feeling depressed, eating some chicken will increase the serotonin levels in your brain, enhance your mood, relieving stress and helping you to sleep.

Remember after a turkey feast or some chicken on Thanksgiving how people often get sleepy and just want a little nap. You can thank a chicken or turkey for that nap.

Other good reasons for eating chicken are several. Here are some of them:

1. Bone loss prevention which will help stave off or reduce Osteoporosis.
2. Brighten your mood.
3. Protein from chicken as well as other meats lends its self to muscle growth
4. That same protein may help support a healthy body weight and aid weight loss.
5. Eating chicken helps suppress homocysteine level. Homocysteine an amino acid that can cause cardiovascular issues ,stroke high blood pressure and increased anxiety if the levels are high enough. Homocysteine is a chemical produced from consuming of red meat, dairy, processed food, stress, alcohol and smoking
6. Chicken is high is phosphorus, an important mineral that supports your teeth, bones, kidneys, liver and the nervous system
7. Because of the selenium, another mineral, is involved with immune function
8. Chicken also happens to be rich in niacin, on of the B vitamins that guards against cancer and other genetic (DNA) damage
9. Poultry also is high in vitamin A, which is vital for health eyes.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Operation Christmas Child Update

Thanks to you! We sent off 125 shoe boxes to Operation Christmas Child! This beat our total from last year by just a few! Thank you to all who contributed!

Mission Guatemala Fundraisers

Our mission team to Guatemala will begin to sell pizzas at the end of December. The pizzas will freeze and will make your Super Bowl planning a lot easier. Look for details coming soon.

We also will soon list the names of the team members. In January we will begin our stock sale fundraiser. What is a stock sale fundraiser you ask? We will have a display set up in the narthex with pictures of our team members. There at the table you will be able to "invest" in the mission trip via buying stock. You set the amount you wish to donate and select a team member to sponsor. Now as a sponsor, you will pray for this person before and during the trip. Upon our return, you will be invited to a Guatemalan style dinner and to listen of our adventures.

The mission team will have some wreaths available for purchase after our orders arrive. If you are interested in purchasing a wreath contact Amanda Schnepf or Terri Haehnle.

Schermer Pecans- We have been selling these wonderful nuts for over 20 years for various missions. There are still some nuts available for purchase! We have caramel pecan and plain remaining. All bags are $12 this year due to price increases. The proceeds from these sales will go into a general account to help cover the cost of luggage, insurance, and supplies we may need to take with us. (gloves/safety goggles, etc.)

Souper Bowl of Caring Sunday School Class Challenge

January 26- February 9th (Super Bowl Sunday)

Earn bragging rights and a breakfast provided by your youth groups! To achieve this bring in either monetary donations or items from the food pantry list. Collection jars will be placed in classrooms and collected each Sunday.

Look for leaderboard updates in the narthex each week.

From the Trustees

As we move forward into the colder months, please be aware of icy spots that may occur in the parking lot or on sidewalks. If you see a spot that need attention, please let staff know so that it can be addressed. It's also important to remember that the thermostats in the building are programmed at certain times and intervals according to the church schedule. Please be wary of adjusting thermostats, this can cause the room to maintain a temperature unnecessarily.

Help us maintain our efficiency by ensuring doors (including the interior exit doors) stay closed to prevent cold air from coming in and hot air from leaving.

As always, if you have questions regarding the building, projects, or want something addressed please reach out to either Damon Cox, David Haehnle, or any of the Trustees.
